

English

Stories with familiar settings – The Tiger Who Came to Tea by Judith Kerr

Instructions - The Tiger Who Came to Tea by Judith Kerr

(GPAS – spaces between words, capital letters, full stops, adjectives, past tense, using ‘and’)

Phonics - We also will continue with Little Wandle Letters and Sounds every day to strengthen our phonics learning.

Topic Title

My Family Tree

School Focus

Being me in my World

Maths

Number and Place Value

(counting within 10, recognising and comparing numbers)

Addition and Subtraction

Understanding 1 more and 1 less

Topic

History – My Family Tree

(an exploration of our own families and different generations)

Year: 1

Term: 1

Home Learning

Daily reading at home to be encouraged. Homework will be sent out on a Friday to be returned on or before the following Friday.

ICT

Introduction to Purple Mash & creative computing

PSHE

Jigsaw – Being me in my world

Science

Everyday materials

PE

Basketball & Real PE
(Ball Skills & Reaction/Response)

Art/ DT

Making your mark
(line types and mark making)

Music

Charanga Music Scheme – ‘Hey You!’ by Joanna Mangona

RE

Christianity - What do Christians believe about God?