Our Community Multi Academy Trust collects, uses and is responsible for certain personal information about pupils, parents and guardians. When we do so we are regulated under the General Data Protection Regulation which applies across the European Union (including in the United Kingdom) and we are responsible as 'controller' of that personal information for the purposes of those laws.

We are registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioners Office, Registration Number Z3041023. Our Data Protection Officer is Mrs Helen Stewart.

Information collected by us.

In the course of providing education we collect the following personal information when you provide it to us:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number, contact details language, nationality, country of birth, and free school meal eligibility)
- Special category characteristics
- Ethnicity
- Special educational needs (SEN) information
- Relevant medical information
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- National curriculum assessment results
- Special educational needs information
- Relevant medical information

We also obtain personal information from other sources as follows:

- Personal information, special category information, assessment results and SEN information from schools that you previously attended.
- Service support and involvement information from KCC teams working to improve outcomes for children and young people (such as SEND, Early Help, Free School Meals, Admissions).

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information to:

- Support pupil learning

- Monitor and report on pupil progress.
- Moderate teacher assessment judgements
- Provide appropriate pastoral care and support services.
- Assess the quality of our services.
- Comply with the law regarding data sharing.
- Support you to decide what to do after you leave school.
- Support or improve educational provision.
- Ensure no children are missing education.
- Support children at risk of permanent exclusion
- Support the primary, secondary and in-year admissions process.
- Safeguard children and young people
- Improve the education and services we provide.

How long your personal data will be kept.

We will hold your personal information securely and retain it from the child/young person's date of birth until they reach the age of 25, after which the information is archived or securely destroyed.

Reasons we can collect and use your personal information.

We collect and use pupil information under section 537A of the Education Act 1996, section 83 of the Children Act 1989, and to carry out tasks in the public interest. If we need to collect special category (sensitive) personal information, we rely upon reasons of substantial public interest (equality of opportunity or treatment).

If there is processing or sharing that relies on your consent, we will make this clear to you and ensure we seek your consent.

Who do we share pupil information with?

- Department for Education (DfE) (statutory for school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring) and other government agencies and local authorities as required (e.g. to resolve funding queries)
- Kent County Council teams working to improve outcomes for children and young people.
- Commissioned providers of local authority services (such as education services).
- Schools or colleges that you attend after leaving us.
- Local forums with schools and KCC representatives which support in-year fair access processes and support managed moves between schools.
- Local multi-agency forums which provide SEND advice, support and guidance (such as Local Inclusion Forum Team (LIFT)).
- Partner organisations signed up to the Kent & Medway Information Sharing Agreement, where necessary, which may include Police, school nurses, doctors and mental health workers and Kent Community Health NHS Foundation Trust.
- Schools in our Trust and local collaboration, to enable the moderation of pupil assessment outcomes, to support collaborative working through joint analysis, and ensure children continue to receive appropriate education provision.
- KCC has to share information with external moderators (teachers with recent relevant experience) of end of key stage assessments, to meet statutory requirements from the Standards & Testing Agency (STA).
- Third-party providers of information services (such as classroom-based application) where consent has been given.
- Contracted providers of services (such as school photographers and catering providers) where consent has been given.

We will share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities if required by applicable law.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013. We are required to submit end of key stage assessment data to KCC, as the statutory collection agency for the DfE.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the DfE. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data?
- the purpose for which it is required.
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data.

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
